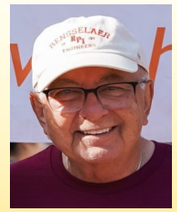
Honorary Chairperson



John Asselta

The Arc of Cumberland County is proud to recognize John Asselta as the Honorary Chairperson for its 22nd Annual Walkathon.

John's dedication to The Arc spans more than 25 years. Since 1999, he has been actively involved with the organization and has participated in every Walkathon, demonstrating an unwavering commitment to The Arc's mission and the individuals and families it serves. Today, John continues his service as a member of The Arc of Cumberland County's Board of Directors and Executive Committee, where his leadership and advocacy help guide the organization's continued success. John's longstanding dedication, generous spirit, and steadfast support of The Arc have made a lasting impact on the organization and the people it serves. We are honored to celebrate his many years of commitment, leadership, and advocacy as the Honorary Chairperson of this year's Walkathon.
